

The Flai collection is a modern range of seats, with their form inspired by the air flow.

Characteristic appearance and small dimensions of the furniture make them ideal for public areas such as cafés, music clubs, pubs, offices, reception areas, etc.

There are four available types of seats – sofas, chairs, armchairs and hockers. By selecting out of three types of legs (metal, plate and wooden), we create an individual character to our furniture. The metal legs emphasise the dynamic and open shape of the furniture, while the wooden ones add classical appearance to the collection.
